Your signatures indicate that the information provided is complete, factual, and honest. They also indicate an understanding that admission to CLHS places the student's academic, athletic, and social life under the policies and regulations of the school, based on the precepts established by the Holy Scriptures, and as written and adopted by the CLHS Board of Directors. These signatures are the beginning of a partnership whereby we strive to "mold Christian leaders for tomorrow". Continued enrollment is contingent upon following these guidelines.
